

ACCLAIM

2019 Leeuwin Estate Brut

"Fresh, vibrant, and zesty, with the fruit taking on a crunchy Granny Smith apple character. The palate is creamy and nicely textured, with fine lemony acidity driving the finish. A very good aperitif style. 60% Chardonnay, 40% Pinot Noir. The Chardonnay component underwent barrel fermentation."

Barry Weinman, Fine Wine Club, 27 September 2021

"Light, bright yellow colour with a good cordon of bubbles. The aroma is fresh, clean and youthfully straightforward, some appealing meringue and creamy lees overtones, all translating faithfully onto the palate which is light, fresh, crisp and dry. It seems chardonnay driven. Really lovely mouth-feel. An appetising style but not too lean—it has generosity too. It would make a fine aperitif." 91/100.
